On this mortgage the above mentioned countess Morelli promises Mr. Lebolo to take care of the maintenance, and promises she will be responsible for any damage that might occur.

The present transaction requires the payment of 800 lire per day for the total of all the above mentioned properties, and the castle. The amount is calculated according to 37 days, including the above mentioned properties of forest land, for a total of 29,600 lire, concerning which the above mentioned seller admits that she has received from the buyer 2000 lire on the 24th of June and therefore he is now freed from the payment of this sum. This agreement is testified by me Notary undersigned.

For the remaining amount of 27,600 lire Mr. Lebolo promised and promises to pay to the said Countess Morelli the following term, that is 24,000 lire by the 11th of next November which is the time when the lease on the property being sold expires and Mr. Lebolo will become the actual owner. The remaining 3,600 lire will be paid within the following 3 months, from November 11th, with a yearly interest of 5% that Mr. Lebolo will pay until his debt is paid.

Furthermore the two parties have agreed and promised the following, that is:

1. that the said seller must proceed to measure all the property above sold providing that the measurements include all the property both rural and urban.

2. that if the measurement of the property is either larger or smaller than the amount agreed upon in the 37 days of the contract the two parties agree to adjust the difference calculated at 8 lire per table.
3. that with the present transaction as declared the seller she will not be responsible anymore for all the encumbrances that the owner now has toward Mr. Giuseppe Antonio Rollando and Domenico Sona who presently takes care of the property above sold according to the contract of lease drawn up by Ravera on January 3rd, 1818 in Torino registered the 15th of same month N. 368 page 531, book 1 with payment of 20.25 lire as shown in the receipt signed by Morano, etc.

that the said seller and her husband Count Morelli who is acting in her name give to the buyer Mr. Lebolo all the titles and right of ownership.

- 4. that the said Countess Morelli seller is responsible to redeem the mortgage for the capital of 1200 lire and obtain the cancellation of the said mortgage.
- 5. that after the measurements of the above mentioned sold buildings the price of them has to be calculated at 8 lire for each tale and if the amount will be over 1000 lire the buyer Mr. Lebolo is exempt from the payment of the said fractions having the seller agree with him on this subject if the amount of the said fractions is more than 999 lire.
- 6. that with this transaction the seller (Lady Morelli) will be exempted of any responsibility toward the church of

- 7. and that the buyer Mr. Lebolo does not hold the seller responsible for any type of mortgage.

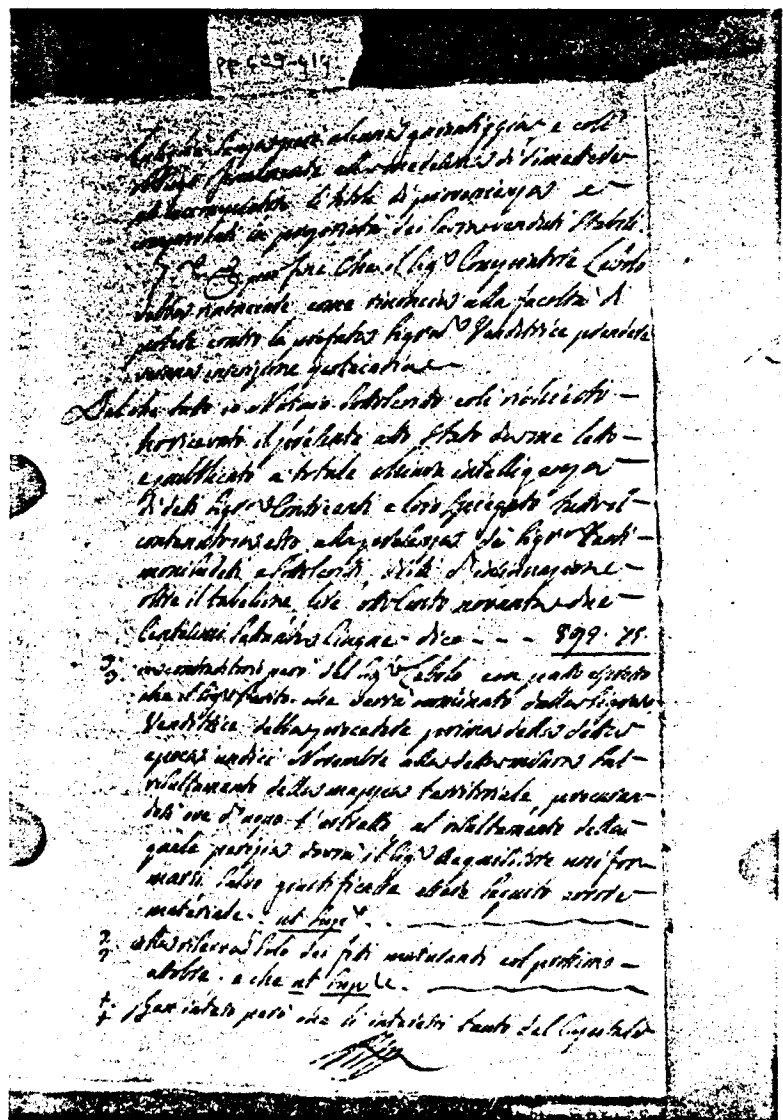

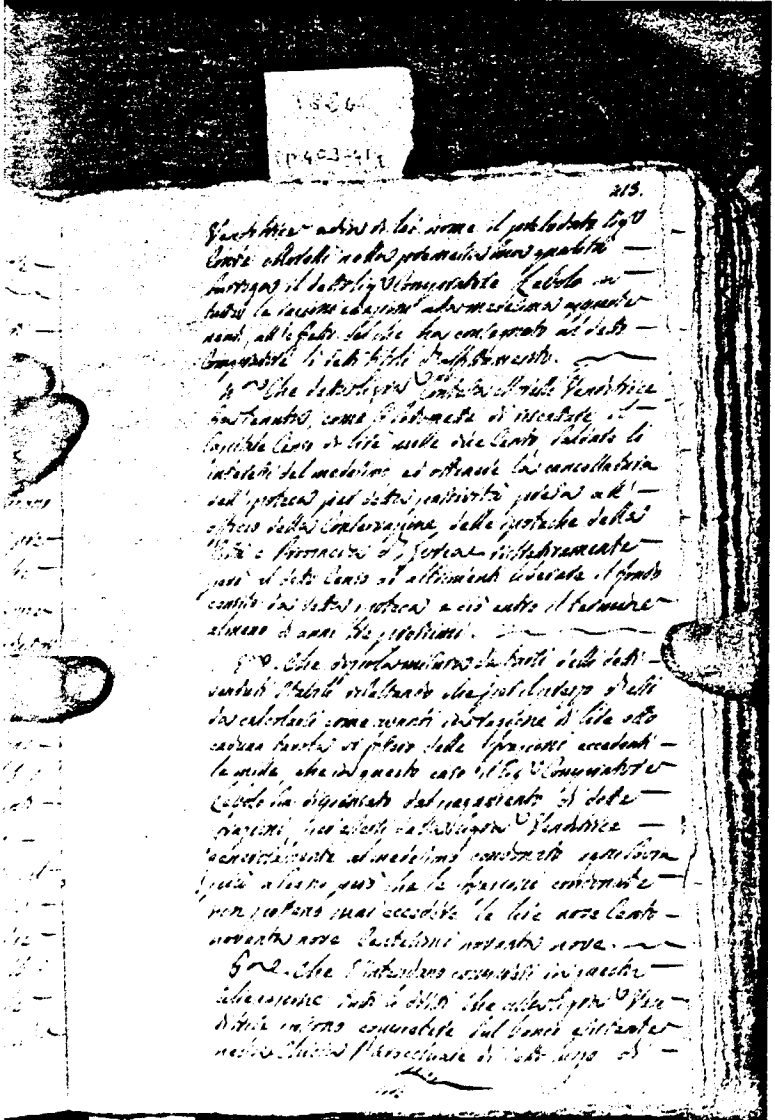

I, Notary undersigned, having been asked, have received the present act that has been read by me and published for the understanding of the parties involved, in the presence of the above mentioned and undersigned witnesses.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Giovanni Meuta from Castellamonte declares that on the 18th of February Mr. Antonio Lebolo died leaving a nuncupative (oral) will dictated on the 9th of September 1829, made public on the 19th of February drawn up by Buffa. In that testament were mentioned the sole heirs Pietro, Giuseppe, Giovanni and Tomaso, the Lebolo brothers, children of the late Antonio Lebolo. Each one of them receives an equal share of the inheritance and to Giuseppe, Giovanni and Tomaso, being tender age, have been assigned a guardian in the person of the representative (G. Meuta), who in order to fulfill the state obligation imposed by the above mentioned will through notary Giacomo Buffa who had been appointed to this particular task, now proceeds to read the inventory of all the personal proprieties both real estate and the possessions which are part of the inheritance left by the deceased Antonio Lebolo.

Among the said personal belongings they found a quantity of food supplies that are left because the deceased Lebolo used to be a grocery dealer.

In his possessions there is a considerable amount of malaga wine and some jewelry both of gold and silver, and a quantity of furniture useless to the family and subjected to depreciation. The inheritance is weighted down with some obligations that cannot be paid without selling the above mentioned belongings. The representative (G.M.) urged the selling of such properties in order to be able to pay the debts left by the said Lebolo, and fulfill the above-mentioned will and inventory. For this reason he has come to your excellencies asking you to be willing to agree with the petitioner to the selling of the above mentioned properties on the basis of a private agreement that will be left in the end to the said notary Giacomo Buffa. Mr. Buffa has already assisted in the preparation of the said inventory and of those that have helped him. This is in order to avoid further expenses to the clients.

Mortgage from Pietro Lebolo to Giovanni Batista Pollino Marchetto of Castellamonte

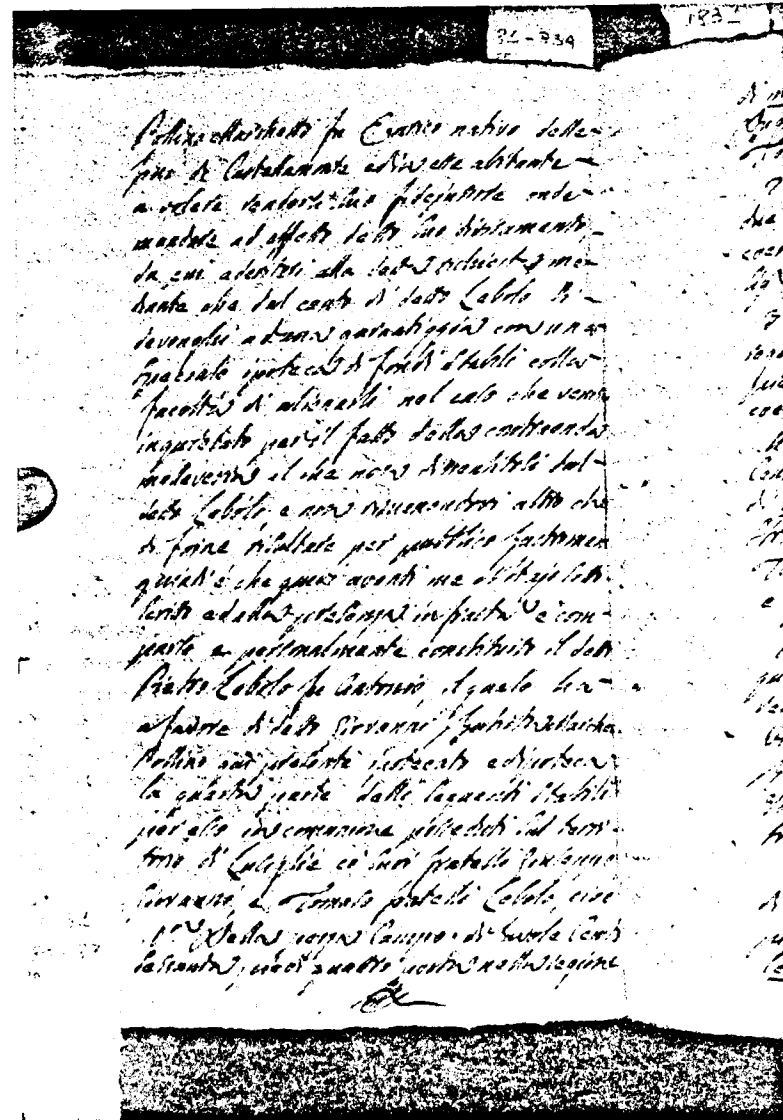

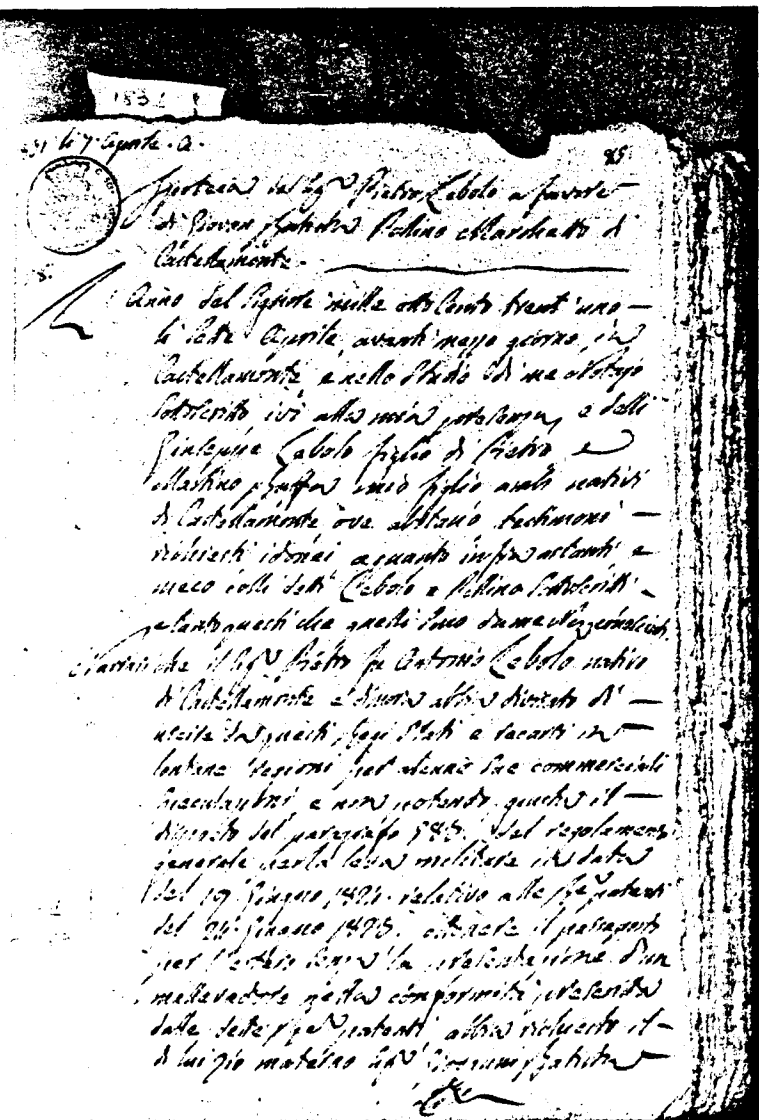

The year of the Lord April 7th, 1831 before noon in Castellamonte and in my office, Notary undersigned, and in my presence and in the presence of Mr. Giuseppe Lebolo, Pietro's son, and Martino Buffa, my son both born and living in Castellamonte. They are witnesses before me and the above mentioned Lebolo and Pollino undersigned.

Mr. Pietro, late Antonio Lebolo born and living in Castellamonte, has planned to leave these Royal states and go to far away regions for his own speculative business. He cannot obtain a passport to go abroad because of paragraph 583 of the general regulations for military service dated June 19th, 1824 pertaining to the Royal license dated June 24th, 1823. He has requested that his own maternal uncle Mr. Giovanni Batista Pollino Marchetto late Enrico, born and living on the borders of Castellamonte, to be his bailor as the law requires in order to carry out his plan. Mr. Pietro agrees with a special mortgage on the real estate with Mr. Pollino giving him authority to sell the real estate if he no longer desires to be the bailor.

G. Batista Pollino Marchetto agrees, therefore the only thing left to do is to have a public act, here in front of me Notary undersigned and in the presence of the said Pietro Lebolo of the late Antonio who mortgages the fourth part of the following properties that he shares with his brothers Giuseppe, Giovanni and Tomaso Lebolo, in favor of G. Batista Marchetto Pollino:

to be determined and systematically pay the sum due. The above-mentioned Mr. Meuta agrees to submit to Mrs. Anna all personal belongings, identified as personal property, and he will pay to her the sum of 240 lire with the implied condition that Mrs. Anna asks nothing more from the heirs and that the above mentioned sum will depend on her conduct as a widow and on her chastity and honesty as the will indicated. We have looked through the inventory between the 20th of February and the 10th of March 1830 by me written, notary undersigned.

We came to the agreement to return to Mrs. Anna the following belongings:

the gold ring with the inscription "amour" listed as number 211 valued at seven lire; the gold "collier" (necklace) valued at seventy lire listed as number 213 and also the cornel trimmed in gold listed as number 216.

The above described will be changed on the official will. There is, in my presence, Mrs. Anna, Lebolo's widow, who came from an African nation, as she says from [Nubia] or Nigrigia is black and uninstructed by her parents about the place where she was born and emigrated at an infantile age; and also in the presence of Mr. Giovanni Meuta, late Bernardino native and resident in Castellamonte, as legal attorney of Pietro Lebolo, called centorsio.

Agreement between the widow Mrs. Anna Lebolo and Mr. Giovanni Battista Meuta from Castellamonte.

The Year of the Lord 1831 October the 10th the first afternoon in Castellamonte in the house of the above mentioned Mr. Meuta, here in my presence, Notary undersigned, and in the presence of Mr. Speciale Giuseppe Cima late Mr. Medico Giuseppe born in Bajro and Aurina Batista of Pietro born in Castellamonte where they both live. They are qualified witnesses that we have requested. These are among us including Mr. Giuseppe Brogliatti who undersigned, and the cross mark is by Mrs. Anna, Lebolo's widow, who is illiterate, were by me, notary, known.

On 18th of February 1830, Antonio Lebolo died the emancipated son of still living Pietro and with the will issued the 19th of February by me drawn up the 23rd of February, where it was situated as the Number 330, Volume 1, Protocol 538 with payment of six lire and thirty cents.

He has given the usufruct of all his goods, real estate and personal property, to his wife Anna and to all sole heirs who are: Pietro, Giuseppe, Tommaso and Giovanni, all brothers, and all his sons. If by chance, his wife Anna cannot or will not live with them he has provided for her for food and clothes 240 lire every year without claiming anything more.

Since that Anna, Lebolo's widow, does not want to live with her sons and having already a new residence in Torino, after having made known her decision to Mr. Giovanni late Bernardino Meuta attorney and guardian (mentor) of Lebolo's heirs, she asks of the same guardian to give to her some personal property and as mentor of Giuseppe, Tommaso, Giovanni, Lebolo brothers, all heirs of Antonio abovementioned in the will by me written. They have decided as follows:

That Mrs. Anna, assisted by Giuseppe Brogliatti late Michele native of Cuorgne and resident in Castellamonte, her trusted friend, has been assisted by Mr. Brogliatti, and now knows exactly the assets and liabilities of the inheritance left by her husband Antonio Lebolo.

Manuscript Page 229a
Plate 6 of 8
1831 Oct 10

And after having verified that among the assets and liabilities of the inheritance there are many uncertainties because of the many debtors, he has, for her advantage and convenience and all usufructs on the inheritance and accepting only the sum of 240 lire, knowing to have already received 70 lire for the first quarter of the year.

To make things easy the payment by Mr. Meuta will be received every three months.

1. Mrs. Anna will send Mr. Domenico Romana, late Domenico resident in Castellamonte, as collector and gives him all necessary authority for doing the job.
2. That Mr. Meuta must pay in advance for the time above expressed and depending on the continued chaste and honest conditions of Mrs. Anna, every three months, to Domenico Romana or any other person with authority.

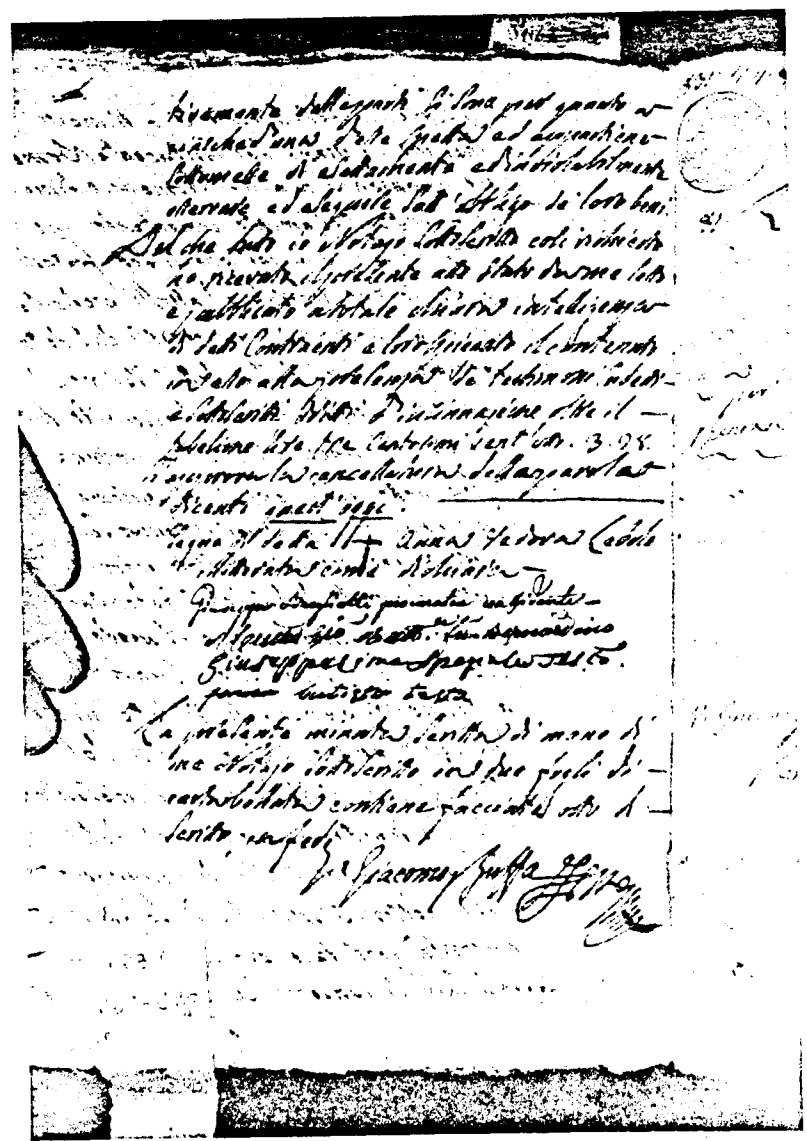

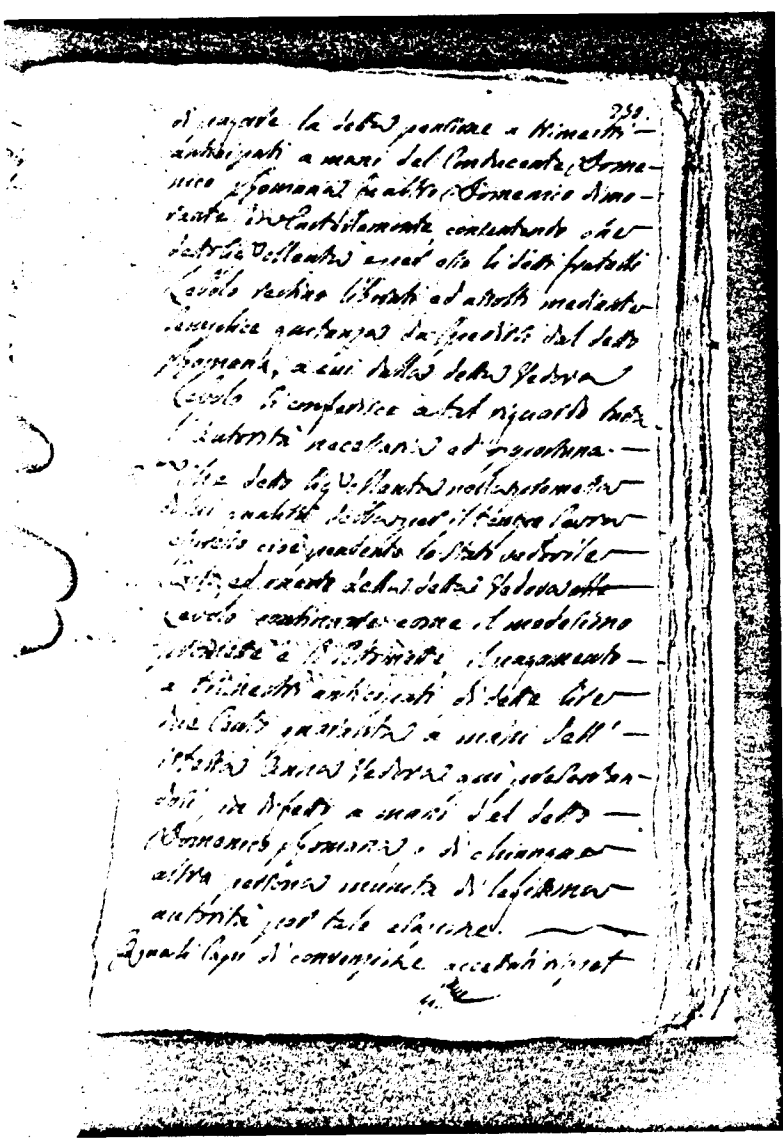

I, Notary undersigned, have received the present act by me read to the contracting parties and I have explained it to them in the presence of the witnesses.

We approve the registration today.

PRESENTATION OF THE SEALED WILL OF
MR. ANTONIO LEBOLO FROM CASTELLAMONTE

In the year of our Lord 1829, on November 17, after twelve o'clock a.m., in Castellamonte, in the house of the said testator, there, in the presence of myself, the notary undersigned, and of Mr. Padre Luigi Antonio from Corte Miglia, born in Corte Miglia, now living in Cuorgne a Capucino; Alessandro Bono, son of the late Gerolamo, born in Alessandria and now living in Turin; Giuseppe Cima, son of the late Giuseppe, born in Bairo; Lorenzo Negri, son of the late Domenico, born in Collettero; ~~Francesco Sebastiano, son of the late Giacomo;~~ Morozzo Sebastiano late Pietro; and Michele Rei, son of Giuseppe, all born and residing in Castellamonte; are all suitable witnesses in this matter among many people, and undersigning with me and the said testator undersigned.

Having personally decided, Mr. Antonio Lebolo, emancipated son of Pietro, born and living in Castellamonte, sound in his mind, sight, hearing and speech, and so with perfect awareness of his senses, although being confined to a bed by an illness of his body, he has here presented to me, the undersigned notary, and the mentioned witnesses a folder in form of a letter, sealed in three places with red Spanish sealing wax, each seal carrying the imprint of a dove within its beak a branch with three leaves with a declaration by the said Mr. Lebolo that said folder contains his last will and testament as of today, written by a person trusted by him upon two official sheets of paper, containing seven written pages plus three lines on the eighth page, being at the foot of the first, third, and last pages, consisting in the said few lines the said undersigned Lebolo to write by his own hand and handwriting, being on the back of said folder a note by the hand of a notary that says: "Will of Mr. Antonio Lebolo from Castellamonte," to this note, after the undersignature of said testator, there are the already mentioned witnesses with me, the notary. Moreover, the aforementioned Mr. Lebolo declaring that he meant and wants the said secret will as it is presented, must be valid and have full and complete effect and inviolate execution as such, and if for such validity it cannot have value and be of worth as an addendum, a donation because of death, or by any other means by which it will be able to be valid and be effectively executed.

For this purpose the above mentioned folder was presented by said Mr. Lebolo to the witnessing and presence of the mentioned and said witnesses, given and delivered to me, the said notary, to keep it and save it in my notes of the present year, as one with the present document, kept and put together to present it and represent everything as needed to whom it may concern. In fact the said Mr. Lebolo has given and gives me, the undersigned notary, the power to open and unseal, after his death, the said folder containing his secret will, without any legal formality, with the only intervention and assistance of two witnesses. Being the said testator asked and exhorted by me, the undersigned notary, to leave something to the venerable and charitable hospitals of the Saints Maurizio and Lazzaro, standing in the city of Turin or to the local and provincial congregation of charity, he has answered that he cannot leave anything with such regard.

Having been asked about all these things, the appropriate evidences were granted and are granted by me, the notary, to said Mr. Lebolo, having received the present document about everything, that I read and published with clear and understandable voice by said testator, the mentioned and undersigned witnesses being present, the rights of signature besides the regular price is three lire and fifty seven cents. 3.57.

I nominate and declare as a fiduciary heir the priest Don Giacomo Meuta, son of the late Bernardino, for the yearly amount of four hundred Lire, for the total amount of six thousand Lire, in such a way that said yearly amount be exactly paid by my universal heirs to the priest Don Meuta always and when he himself will ask it from them, well understanding that, if the principal amount is paid in half in one payment in this case the yearly amount will also be reduced to one half, and if the entire amount of six thousand lire is paid in one payment, the whole yearly amount will be considered concluded and paid off, as it is now my will and testament. And if the fiduciary Don Meuta will die before the total amount is paid, in such a case I want and order that the same yearly amount be paid to the very illustrious and Reverend Archpriest pro tempore (of that time) residing in this place, with the obligation for both Don Meuta and said Archpriest to convert and employ such yearly amount and principal in a way that I will suggest them in a specific writing, written in single copy by a person I trust and by myself, with the obligation, from both of them, of giving an account of it, as much as they will be able to, to the very Illustrious and Reverend Bishop of the city and diocese of Ivrea, as I humbly and surely beg to condescend to take care of what I asked of them, forbidding them any publicity of such task, about which I want only Monsignor to know.

And as for the remainder of my possessions, real-estates, credits, personal properties, interests in shops, bonds and stocks, wherever they are and can be found, I proclaim and nominate as universal heirs Pietro, my only child from my first wife, and also Giuseppe, Giovanni and Tomaso, other legitimate and natural children of mine from my aforementioned second wife, all four in equal part and portion; and in the case that one or more of them might die in their youth, in this case I substitute to the dead one the other living children, always in equal parts,

In the year of our Lord 1829, on the fourth of December, after 12 o'clock a.m., in Castellamonte, and in the house where said Lebolo lives, being present myself, the undersigned notary, and the ~~sergeant~~ ~~Mr. Giuseppe Balli~~ Pietro Onorato, son of the late Antonio; Giovanni Batista Marchetti, son of the late Giovanni Enrico; Giuseppe Cima, son of another late Giuseppe, born in Bajro; Pietro Gianassi son of Tomaso, all the others born in Castellamonte, where all of them are now living, they are suitable witnesses among many people in this matter, undersigning with me and the said Mr. Lebolo (who is writing the addendum), and they all are fully known by me, the notary.

Having personally decided, Mr. Antonio Lebolo, independent son of Pietro, born and living in Castellamonte, mindful of his will and testament which was dictated implicitly and written a few days ago and while being still sound in his mind, sight, speech and hearing and therefore with perfect awareness of his senses by the Grace of God, willing to change and add a few little things in his will, he has decided and ordered with this present addendum, as he now decides and orders, it as follows, that is...

Said Mr. Lebolo, who writes the addendum has revoked and revokes the prohibition and obligation to his first born son both for the division of his possessions and for the dowry of his late mother Maria Pollino Marchetto; he [Mr. Lebolo] wants that his mentioned son Pietro Lebolo can, as he pleases, determine the division of the inheritance, even without his brothers and coheirs having yet reached their legal age, provided that said first born son will take care of all the expenses that will be necessary to such division, and if the division will be postponed until the legal age of the aforementioned heirs, the expenses will be equally divided among the coheirs. And as for the said dowry of his mother, said Mr. Lebolo, who is writing this addendum, wants that his aforementioned son Pietro can dispose of it as he pleases, and use as he will see fit.

Then, he [Mr. Lebolo] delegates to both ~~Mr. Francesco~~ ~~son of the late Giacomo Bertolo~~, and Giovanni, son of the late Bernardino Meuta in this place and residence the property of the civil and county house located in the county seat and town of Zusiglia between the square and the public land, with the obligation that said legates will sell said house to the 'Congregation of Charity' in that place, if it will agree to see flour at the price that will be Special power of attorney from Pietro Lebolo to Bertola Francesco.

Year of the Lord 1833, October 5th in Torino, in my office located on the 3rd floor of S. Albano's house, door no. 18, district of St. Tomas, here in my presence and in the presence of said Mr. Ant. Bruno from Bra and Vincenzo Caire from Vojone, both living in this city, both fit and requested witnesses.

Here assembled Mr. Pietro Lebolo of the late Antonio, born in Castellamonte and living in this, the capital city (Torino), who acts in his own behalf and with the ability to provide other attorneys, for Giuseppe, Giovanni and Tomaso, Lebolo brothers, his brothers, who are assisted by their guardian Mr. Meuta Giovanni, as it has already been agreed, through the act of July 30, 1831, act received by Buffa, drawn up in Castellamonte the same day with payment of 3.87 lire, properly legalized by the Department of Foreign Affairs. All of them are the sole heirs of their late father. Mr. Pietro Lebolo has nominated to act in his place and nominates to act in his place Mr. Francesco Bertola who is also from Castellamonte, who is now living in Philadelphia as a professional veterinarian, here now accepting, to whom he gives the authority to claim the eleven mummies and other antique objects which belonged to the deceased father of them and by him (A. Lebolo) left in custody to Albano Oblafier of Trieste who sent them to New York to the house of Mr. Led and Quellarspie. There the mummies were supposed to be sold to anybody that would have paid the sum that they (Mr. Led and Q.) would have thought appropriate and then send quittance in any possible way. The said Bertola in case of dispute, is to go to court and fight in whatever way to defend Lebolo's interest and with power to do all the necessary acts in order to obtain a quick liquidation of said objects and call other special attorneys. In other words, Mr. Bertola should do whatever the Lebolo brothers would do if they would take part in any of the actions that this special attorney (Bertola) would take. Every power is given to him with the stipulation cum libero et ut alter ego, finalizing everything for them.

I have received, read, and pronounced the complete content of the present act with clear voice in the presence of the constituent and of the witnesses known by me and myself undersigned according with the royal rate from Pietro Lebolo, with Bruno as witness and Vincenzo Caire as witness. The present rough copy has been written with my handwriting, it contains a sheet of stamped paper written on two pages on the bottom fourth of the first page I have stained the page.

THE HISTORY OF OUR INVOLVEMENT IN THE LEBOLO RESEARCH.

How I came in contact with Dr. Peterson was a kind of coincidence. In October '84 my wife, Jerrilynn, our little Sam and I were visiting the "Centro" branch. Sam escaped in a sudden race into a classroom where Dr. Peterson was talking about his Lebolo project. Jerri ran to catch Sam and on that occasion she heard the name of Lebolo. She remembered that I had once told her that I was involved in a research concerning Lebolo's parish records and she told that to Dr. Peterson. So, we met and since Dr. Peterson was leaving for Cairo he encouraged me to do research to find Lebolo's will. "We have to find that will!" he stressed.

At first Jerri and I chose to search, in the file of the notaries of the Ivrea area, the notaries of Castellamonte who worked around 1830 and there we started to look for Lebolo. Fortunately there were only 6 or 7 notaries there, but we didn't find any trace of Lebolo. We realized that Lebolo, even though he lived in Castellamonte, probably could go to a notary in some surrounding hamlet or town, or even to Ivrea. We counted the possible notaries to be about 90 and we felt we were seeking a needle in a haystack.

Providentially we found an indication that Lebolo was a friend of the notary of Collettero Parella (a hamlet near Castellamonte), whose name was Giacomo Buffa. So we looked in his books and there it was: not only the will but also the inventories and the news that Lebolo delivered eleven mummies to a certain Albano Oblassa of Trieste to sell them.

Dr. Peterson soon returned from Cairo and said that they certainly were the mummies of Michael Chandler. Now we had to find a connection between Italy and America to prove that those mummies were the mummies of Michael Chandler.

At the beginning of March '85 we received a letter from Professor Peterson: "...we need to find...". It struck me as a divine order, so back to work!

At first Jerri and I conjectured that any other news concerning the destiny of those mummies could only be found in Trieste. However, just for thoroughness, we decided to cast one last glance in the Archives of Torino. I felt an inspiration, after I had expressly prayed for that problem, to seek among the notaries of Torino, not among those of Ivrea, and there we found the line connecting Italy with America.

All this has been a wonderful experience and we have felt to be in some way connected with Joseph Smith and have felt nearer to him. Also, we are very grateful to have been a part in this project.

Dear Dr. Peterson,

Here's the history of Adriano's involvement in the Rebollo project plus the three recaptions of the second copy we found of the act authorizing Mr. Bertola to get the mummies. It seems to be a bit more complete, adding Meekland and Kennedy to the name of M'led and Guellaroppe as those who received the mummies. This copy was from the personal records of the notary while the first copy was from the copy the notary sent to the archives of Torino.

We have learned from a doctor working at the archives who is from Trieste that there should be records of the shipping in that period, and we will start checking in that either through her or personally when time and finances permit.

We hope this helps. We're looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Adriano Cambiaghi
